I really appreciate it if you would stop harassing me. This is ridiculous. Also, if you read the police report you talked to the cops two separate times and then got belligerent and close the door on them in their faces. You did yourself nor I any favors. A good day

Don't care about what you have to say. What you're saying is stupid. Stop pretending to be a lawyer you don't know what you're talking about I can't believe you are telling every single person you know that I turned him in. And I have several people who will address that so shut up. And I work today too sweetheart I'm sorry I don't have a fentanyl addiction like you do so I can sleep through most of it though
